La Roche College admits qualified students of any sex, race, color, handicap, religion, national and ethnic origins or veteran status to all rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the college. It does not discriminate in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship or loan programs, athletic and other college-administered programs. La Roche's non-discrimination policy is administered in accordance with state and federal laws, including Title IX of the Educational Amendments Act of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The College is committed to serving a diversity of students by providing educational and extra-curricular programs which will enhance their overall educational experience. The College is committed also to maintaining a humane atmosphere in which all individuals and groups are respected and not disparaged. The College is unalterably opposed to any form of harassment. Harassment includes behavior, speech or writing that demeans or stereotypes individuals in a harmful way. Harassment may create an intimidating, hostile or demeaning environment and often has the effect of interfering with an individual's full and free participation in the life of the College.
