

HISTORY

AS A STUDENT MAJORING IN HISTORY at La Roche University, you'll take a variety of history courses without losing sight of your career goals and individual preferences. Working closely with you, we guide you through the process so that your history track reflects your intellectual interests.

From early world history and to the recent past, our History Program traces the evolution of societies and explains what has become of them. When you major in history at our campus, you'll explore different aspects of the development of America and of countries in Europe, Asia and Africa.
