

PSYCHOLOGY

PSYCHOLOGY, THE SCIENCE OF HUMAN BEHAVIOR, is the method that helps us understand not only our own behavior but the behavior of others. Psychology is used to improve relationships, understand actions and feelings, and help those in the community by impacting the quality of their lives.

Majoring in psychology at La Roche University prepares you to think critically, communicate effectively and enhance your interpersonal skills. You'll learn how to conduct and understand research, discover how to solve problems, and acquire information and technology literacy.
