

ACCOUNTING

 LA ROCHE UNIVERSITY

THE MAJOR IN ACCOUNTING is designed to provide students with a practical knowledge of current accounting principles and other associated skills needed to excel in the accounting profession. The program prepares students for careers in accounting and satisfies the core education requirements for Pennsylvania CPA licensure and CMA certification. The program also provides preparation for graduate study in accounting, business or public administration.

The Accounting major at La Roche University is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP), a leading, specialized accreditation association for business education.
