Mike Mlinac, '77, MBA, CFP®

Trustee, La Roche College

Chief Financial Officer, University of North Texas Foundation, Inc.

For more than 30 years, Mike Mlinac has flourished in the financial services industry.

After graduating from La Roche, Mlinac joined Ernst & Young as a CPA, then Pitt-Des Moines Corp. After earning an MBA from Harvard University's Graduate School of Business, Mike was a senior executive for Fidelity Investments for 17 years and established a private family office, Mlinac Management, LLC. He currently serves as chief financial officer of the University of North Texas Foundation, Inc.

Dedicated to community service, Mlinac has served on the boards of Metroport Meals on Wheels, Metroport Rotary Charities and the Harvard Business School Club of Fort Worth, in addition to several corporate and advisory boards.

Mlinac, who joined the La Roche College board of trustees in 2012, said his college experience offered an opportunity for great personal growth. "The nurturing environment, encouragement from faculty and administrators, and support of friends and classmates helped me develop the confidence to grow and take on new challenges," he said. "In many respects, the seeds of my subsequent personal and professional success were first sown at La Roche."
